ADVISORY NO. 31
Series of 2016

CAMBODIA REQUIRES REGISTRATION OF MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

The Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) reported on the issuance by the government of Cambodia of Royal Decree No. NS/RKT/0200/039. Under Article 1 of the said Decree, all physicians are required to register with the Medical Council of Cambodia in order to practice their profession regardless of the length of their intended stay or practice in the country.

The said Decree covers all medical doctors and medical assistants, both local and foreign working in the private and public sectors. In order to register with the Medical Council of Cambodia, foreign registrants must submit a completed application form together with the supporting documents and pay the registration fee to the National Medical Council Office of the Ministry of Health.

For the information and guidance of all concerned.
