ADVISORY No. 124
Series of 2020

Further to POEA Advisory No. 48, Series of 2020, the public is hereby advised that the original validity or the revalidation of Overseas Employment Certificates (OECs) issued to Overseas Filipino workers (OFWs) which expired during the enhanced Community Quarantine (ECQ) is hereby extended until all the community quarantines in the country have been lifted.

Departing OFWs with expired OECs during the period of Enhanced, Modified and General Community Quarantine may proceed to the POEA issuing Office of the POEA or at the Labor Assistance Center (LAC) in the Philippine International Airports. The requirements stated in the Advisory No. 48 shall be presented for evaluation, revalidation and stamping of OEC as "CLEARED".
