ADVISORY NO. 23
Series of 2020

COOK ISLANDS IMPOSED TRAVEL RESTRICTIONS

The Philippine Embassy in Wellington New Zealand has posted in its website the imposition of travel restrictions by Cook Islands. According to the Embassy, the government of Cook Islands will deny entry to those individuals who have been in Peoples Republic of China (including Hong Kong, Taiwan, Macau) Japan, Singapore, South Korea, Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia, Philippines, Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Italy and Iran, within the last 14 days prior to travel to Cook Islands.

The government of Cook Islands imposed the travel restrictions in order to protect its population from the COVID-19 epicenter and other areas of concern. The said restrictions take effect immediately, and will be reviewed weekly.

For the information and guidance of all concerned.
