LIFTING OF THE SUSPENSION ON VERIFICATION OF NEW PRINCIPALS FOR SAUDI ARABIA

The Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) has issued a directive on the partial lifting of the suspension on the verification of documents at posts in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for documents pertaining to accreditation of new principals, subject to appropriate safeguards under existing rules and regulations. The lifting of the suspension may be revoked or cancelled when the employer/principal is meted with the penalty of disqualification from participation in the overseas employment program and when the employer/principal fails to comply with the undertaking submitted as requirement for accreditation.

The verification, however, of the following documents by the Philippine Overseas Labor Offices in the Kingdom remains suspended until further notice:

1. Renewal of accreditation of erring foreign principals; and
2. Processing of new and additional job orders from construction and Mega Recruitment Companies

For the information and guidance of all concerned.
